

Edinburgh Churches Climate Change Conference

Saturday 11 October 2008

9:30am to 4:45pm

The Performing Arts Centre at
Stewart's Melville College, Edinburgh

How should Christians respond to climate change?

A day conference hosted by
The Rt Revd Brian Smith

Bishop of Edinburgh

With talks from the experts:

Chris Rapley

Director of the Science Museum, London

Elaine Storkey

President of Tearfund

Michael Northcott

Professor of Ethics at the University of Edinburgh

John Ferguson

Manager of Strategic Projects,
Scottish Environmental Protection Agency

And a choice from 20 workshops giving practical ideas for action.

For more information and to register online visit: www.edinburghclimate.net

Edinburgh Climate Network, c/o Barclay Church
1 Wright's Houses (Bruntsfield)
Edinburgh EH10 4HR

Telephone: Julie on 07952 987 427

E-mail: conference@edinburghclimate.net

Supported by:

Organised by Edinburgh Climate Network, a group of volunteers from Edinburgh churches, and supported by: A Rocha, Christian Aid, Church of Scotland: responding to climate change, City of Edinburgh Council, Diocese of Edinburgh, Eco-Congregation Edinburgh Network, Edinburgh Churches Together, Friends of the Earth Edinburgh, RSPB, Stop Climate Chaos Scotland and Tearfund (Scotland).

Edinburgh Churches Climate Change Conference 08